

Recognitions

Whitechapel College is accredited by the British Accreditation Council (BAC) for Independent, Further and Higher Education.

The British Accreditation Council (BAC) is an independent body, established in 1984 as the National Accrediting Body for private post-16 education in the UK.

Whitechapel College is a Centre approved by the University of Cambridge International Examinations.

The University of Cambridge is known worldwide for excellence in education and was ranked the World's top University in the 2010 University rankings league table created by QS, a global careers and education network.

Whitechapel College is an accredited centre for the EDEXCEL Board

EDEXCEL is the leading provider of internationally recognised qualifications. It is a UK government recognised awarding body.

Whitechapel College is a Centre approved by the City & Guilds.

City & Guilds is the leading vocational awarding institution in the UK with two million learners working towards one of their qualifications every year.

Whitechapel College is an exclusive partner of the Foreign Language Centre (International Centre of the European Consortium for the Certificate of Attainment in Modern Languages-ECL Language Exam System), University of Pecs, Hungary.

Whitechapel College also develops and assesses English Language Test at all levels of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) of the University of Pecs.

Originally, University of Pecs was established in 1367. It is one of the best and largest universities in Hungary with 29000 students and 2000 academic and research staff.

Whitechapel College is an independent College approved by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH).

The Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH) is a professional voice for environmental health. It provides information, evidence and policy advice to local and national government and environmental and public health practitioners in the public and private sectors.

Whitechapel College has been accredited by the Institute of Legal Executives (ILEX) to offer its courses.

ILEX (The Institute of Legal Executives) was established in 1963 and since then has had the support of the Law Society. It is the recognised professional body for the education of Legal Executives, the third branch of the legal profession, which works together with Solicitors and Barristers.

Whitechapel College is an accredited College of the Council for Licensed Conveyancers able to provide the internal CLC Course.

The Council for Licensed Conveyancers (CLC) is the regulatory body for Licensed Conveyancers who are qualified specialist property lawyers. The CLC was established by the Administration of Justice Act 1985.

